

NATIONAL VOLUNTEER WEEK EVENTS AND OPPORTUNITIES

Saturday, April 5th

- The United Way of the Adirondack Region, North Country Regional Volunteer Center, Project HELP at SUNY Plattsburgh, and the Adirondack Cost Visitors Bureau will host their annual Day of Caring with volunteer activities throughout the region. Click here to learn more.

Tuesday, April 8th

- The Executive Director of the Long Island Volunteer Center, Diana O'Neill, presents Amy Castigliano founder of volunteer organization, Lindy Manpower the President's Volunteer Service Award. This volunteer award aims to encourage individuals to live a life of service. Lindy Manpower is a grass roots community-based, volunteer-driven group that has been assisting hundreds of Long Islanders who are impacted by Superstorm Sandy.
- Volunteer Anne Phillips, from disaster relief organization All Hands Volunteers, appears on "Heroes on Our Island" at 8pm on FIOA1-TV.
- The Long Island Volunteer Center will be speaking to Farmingdale State College students regarding Volunteerism and Community Engagement.

Wednesday, April 9th

- The United Way of Broome County, Southern Tier Regional Volunteer Center is hosting a volunteer fair at the Oakdale Mall (near Sears) from 12pm -3pm. This volunteer fair offers one-stop-shopping for volunteer opportunities across a range of service areas. Don't miss out on this chance to engage with over 20 local organizations and learn more about their missions, programs, and how you can help make a difference in our community.
- The United Way of Broome County, Southern Tier Regional Volunteer Center is participating in an American Red Cross Blood Drive from 12pm – 6pm at 601-635 Harry L Drive, Johnson City. Please call 1-800-RedCross or visit redcrossblood.org to make an appointment (walk-ins are also welcome). All presenting donors can enter to win one of three $250 gift cards to use toward a rainy day getaway!
- Tuoro Law Clinic will be meeting with those individuals and families impacted by Superstorm Sandy in Nassau County. PLEASE CALL (646) 786-0887 to reserve your space, Freeport Recreational Center, 130 East Merrick Road, 10am-6pm appt. necessary.

Thursday, April 10th

- Join the Southern Tier Regional Volunteer Center at the 2014 Volunteer Management Conference featuring "Streams of Service" with keynote speaker Susan Ellis of Energize, Inc. This two-day conference at the DoubleTree by Hilton in Binghamton provides a comprehensive look at volunteer issues from recruitment to training, retention, and more. Registration and details are available here.
- The United Way of Broome County, Southern Tier Regional Volunteer Center is hosting a Volunteer Recognition Reception from 5:30pm – 7:00pm at the DoubleTree by Hilton Hotel in Binghamton. More info here.

- The Town of Islip is hosting student volunteers from Farmingdale State College's Construction Design department to prepare existing-condition drawings for the Town's eight recreation centers. Project drawings can be used by the Town for purposes such as space allocation, determining the number of people permitted by code in assembly areas, emergency egress signs, and as a starting point for a licensed professional to use for future building changes.
- Volunteers from disaster relief organization Rebuilding Together Long Island will be building their 241st wheelchair ramp in Nassau County.

Friday, April 11th

- Join the Southern Tier Regional Volunteer Center for Day 2 of the 2014 Volunteer Management Conference featuring "Streams of Service" with keynote speaker Susan Ellis of Energize, Inc. This two-day conference at the DoubleTree by Hilton in Binghamton provides a comprehensive look at volunteer issues from recruitment to training, retention, and more. Registration and details are available here.
- The Long Island Volunteer Center in conjunction with the launch of LIVE (Long Island Volunteer Enterprise) celebrates National Volunteer Week with a corporate community service initiative at the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Nassau County. Volunteers will weed and prepare flower beds for a residential home in Bayville from 1pm – 6pm.

Saturday, April 12th

- Volunteer CNY is partnering with the City of Syracuse for Clean Up Cuse. Volunteer opportunities will be available throughout the city. Get involved.

Monday, April 6th – Friday, April 11th

- Volunteers are reaching out and promoting New York Rising applications at the Long Island Volunteer Call Center and supporting neighborhood canvassing in Irene and Sandy affected communities reminding Long Islanders of the April 11th deadline.

April 21st – April 27th

- Stakeholders, the Capital District Regional Volunteer Center, will be participating in Serve Albany, a unique week-long service event. Learn more and get involved.

Thursday, April 24th

- The Volunteer Center of United Way is hosting the 34th annual Volunteer Spirit Awards from 8am – 10am at the DoubleTree Hilton in Tarrytown. Visit their website for more information and registration.
- As part of Serve Albany, Stakeholders will be hosting a Disaster Services Institute Community Education series session on Thursday, April 24 from 7pm – 8:30pm at the Albany Elks Lodge (25 South Allen Street, Albany). This event, featuring the American Red Cross of Northeastern New York and the Albany County Emergency Management Office, is free and open to the public. More info here.